

The 11th Forum “Historical Consciousness and Peace in East Asia”, Tokyo 2012

Date: 24.-26. November, 2012

Place: YMCA Asia Youth Center

Language: Simultaneous Translation in Japanese, Chinese and Korean

Theme: “Creation of An East Asian Community lead by citizens – Beyond Territorial Nationalism”

Schedule

24 November 2012 9.20-17.30

9:20-10:00 Keynote speech “Peace in East Asia and the relationship with the United States (Ukeru Magosaki, former head of Intelligence and Analysis Bureau, Ministry of Foreign Affairs)

10:10-11:50 Opening speech (Japan, Rumiko Nishino)

Opening speech (Kim Yilin, China)

Opening speech (Liao Miyu, Korea)

Opening speech (Sven Saaler, FES)

Keynote speech (Japan, Aiko Utsumi)

13:20-17:30 [Session 1] “Creating a nuclear-free East Asia”

1. Moriteru Arasaki, Professor emeritus, Okinawa University: “East Asia and Okinawa”

2. Akira Kawasaki, Co-President of Peace Boat: “Nuclear power plants and nuclear issues”

3. Eckhardt Fuchs, Georg-Eckert-Institut für internationale Schulbuchforschung

25 November 2012 9:30- 18:40

9:30-14:20 [Session 2] “A Historical Consciousness Leading to Peace”

1. Hideaki Uemura, Professor of Keisen University: “Territorial issues and historical consciousness”

2. Yoshifumi Tawara, Children and Textbooks Japan Network 21: “The recent moves of the right wing and textbook issues”

14:30-18:20 [Session 3] “Citizens' movement for peace in East Asia”

Presentations from Japan:

1. Tomie Doi, No Nukes Women's Rally: “The Nuclear free movement after 3.11”

2. YANG Ching Ja, Movement of Japan 2010 Solving the Problem of the Comfort Women: “The Movement for solving the problem of the comfort women”

3. PARK Sam Sok, Korea University: “The Protest movement against the exclusion of elimination of tuition fees of Korean schools and discrimination issues against Koreans in Japan”

18:20-18:40 Closing remarks (Hisao Ishiyama)

26 November 2012: Fieldwork