

Ageing Societies and Legal Approaches

Symposium

July 7, 2017

Waseda University Campus, Tokyo
Building 8, Room 305

Supported by

German Federal Ministry of Justice and Consumer Protection

Languages: German and Japanese (simultaneous interpretation)

Conference Program

09:00	Registration
09:30 – 09:45	Opening Remarks Dr. Jan Grotheer President, DJJV Prof. Yoshiki Kurumisawa Dean, Waseda University School of Law Dr. Alexander Kallweit Friedrich-Ebert Foundation
09:45 - 10:15	Preface Hiromu Kurokawa Deputy Vice-Minister of Justice Christiane Wirtz State Secretary (Staatsekretärin), Federal Ministry of Justice and Consumer Protection
Part I	How can law contribute to intergenerational equity?
10:15 – 10:45	Situation in Japan Prof. Makoto Usami, Kyoto University
10:45 - 11:15	Views from Germany Prof. Dr. Rainer Schlegel President, Federal Social Court
11:15 - 11:45	Discussion Moderation: Prof. Yoshiki Kurumisawa, Waseda University
11:45 - 13:15	Lunch Break
Part II	Ageing Society and the system of social security
13:15 - 13:45	in Japan Prof. Go Fukushima, Kansai University
13:45 - 14:15	in Deutschland Prof. Dr. Raimund Waltermann, University of Bonn
14:15 - 14:45	Discussion Moderation: Prof. em. Takeshi Tsuchida, Waseda University
14:45 – 15:15	Coffee Break

Part III	Discrimination of elderly: Justification and restrictions to the discrimination of the elderly in commerce and under labor law
15:15 - 15:45	Background and Applications of the General Anti-Discrimination Act in Germany Prof. Dr. Karl Riesenhuber, Ruhr-University Bochum
15:45 - 16:15	Comparable Regulations and their Application in Japan Prof. Ryoko Sakuraba, Kobe University
16:15 - 16:45	Discussion Moderation: Prof. Hisashi Takeuchi, Waseda University
16:45	Closing Remarks Dr. Friederike Bosse Secretary General, Japanese-German Center Berlin
17:00 – 19:00	Dinner Reception (Waseda University Okuma Memorial Tower 15F)